Welsh speakers: 0300 200 1133 Minicom: 0300 200 1144 (we may record calls to help us train staff.) Fax: 0300 200 1155

Booking on line at www.direct.gov.uk/drivingtest

Important information

- If after two weeks you have not received your appointment, please phone 0300 200 1122 immediately. If you miss your appointment, you may lose your fee.
- To change your test date please visit www.direct.gov.uk/drivingtest or ring the national booking number on 0300 200 1122 (please note that the national booking line is only open Monday to Friday 8am-6pm). If you continually change your test you may need to have a refund and apply again when you are ready to take your test.
- If you are ill and cannot give the necessary notice to cancel your test appointment, please phone 0300 200 1122 for more advice.
- We may need to contact you if your appointment has to be changed for any reason. Please phone 0300 200 1122 immediately if you change your name or address (you should also tell the DVLA).
- At your test, please show the examiner the following (without these your test may not take place and you may lose your fee):
- A valid signed UK (or Northern Ireland) driving licence. This must be either a photocard licence (both the photocard and the paper counterpart) or an old style paper licence with a valid passport. The only exception to this is for the ADI part 3 test - if you do not have a photocard licence and are bringing an old style paper licence you also need to bring EITHER a valid passport OR your trainee licence.
- The appropriate theory test pass certificate (or confirmation) if not exempt.
- A valid Compulsory Basic Training (CBT) certificate (unless the test is within the Accelerated Access Scheme) if you are taking a moped or motorcycle test.
- You must wait at least 10 working days between appointments for the same category of test.
- You must provide a roadworthy vehicle which is taxed, suitable for the purpose of the test and fully covered by insurance for the purposes of the practical test. A hired car is unlikely to be insured for the driving test. For further details on vehicle requirements, including recalls, please visit www.dsa.gov.uk or see the DL26/L.
- You must display L plates (D plates in Wales) (except taxi and ADI part 2 tests) which meet current regulations when driving a motor vehicle under a provisional licence (see information sheet DL26/L for full details).
- For car and ADI Part 2 tests - seat belts and integral head restraints must be fitted to the front passenger seat and there must be an adjustable interior mirror for the use of the examiner (not applicable for taxi applicants). The front passenger seat must provide all round vision for the examiner.
- For all ADI tests - the vehicle must be a saloon or hatchback/estate car, capable of the normal

- performance of vehicles of its type and must have manual transmission and right hand steering. Part 2 tests: L plates (D plates in Wales) and roof signs should be removed. Part 3 tests: The front driver's seat should have a seat belt and integral head restraint.
- For lorry, bus, tractor or car and trailer tests - a suitable unladen vehicle. Any trailer must be a closed box trailer. Please note the tractive unit of an articulated vehicle is not a suitable vehicle for a category C driving test.
- For lorry (and lorry with trailer), bus (and bus with trailer) or car and trailer tests - vehicles need to be fitted with outside nearside and offside mirrors for use by the driving examiner during the test. Seatbelts for the examiner and any supervising officer also need to be fitted to lorries used for test, including with-trailer and LGV register tests.
- For lorry with trailer, bus with trailer and car with trailer tests all vehicles must be fitted with an audible or visual device to show correct operation of the trailer indicators.
- We will always try to make sure that your test appointment goes ahead. If we cancel your test at short notice, we will provide a copy of our 'Refunding out-of-pocket expenses' form either at the test centre or by post. We will not pay compensation when a test is cancelled due to bad weather, but we will automatically arrange another appointment. You can find details of our service standards and complaints procedures in our 'Customer Service: A guide to our service standards' leaflet, which is available from all our offices and test centres.
- You cannot take a test or get a full licence unless you normally live in this country (this means you must live here because of personal or occupational ties). However, if you have moved to the UK after recently permanently living in another member state of the European Union (EU) or European Economic Area (EEA), you must have been normally living in the UK for 185 days in the 12 months before you apply to take a test or apply for a full driving licence.
- Data Protection Act 1998
We use the personal information you provide to book and run the practical test. We also analyse the test details to assess how effective traffic patterns, safety initiatives and other transport issues are, to improve both customer service and road safety. We will not pass personal information to anyone else other than in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. This could include (but is not limited to) the police, HM Revenue and Customs, and local authorities. For more information, please see our privacy notice on our website (www.dsa.gov.uk) or look for our 'Notification Documentation' on the Information Commissioner's website: (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). Our registration number is Z7122992.
